When can you expect a reply

All written complaints will be logged. You will receive a written acknowledgment within 3 working days.

Our aim is to investigate your complaint properly and give you a substantive response, within 20 working days, setting out our findings. If this is not possible, an interim response will be provided, informing you of the action taken to date, or that the complaint is being considered.

If we need longer to consider your complaint, or if we need more information from you, we will contact you, to let you know.

Once we have considered your complaint, we will tell you of our findings, as appropriate.

How we will respond

We hope to resolve most complaints satisfactorily upon consideration.

However; we understand that in some cases, you may wish to have it considered further.

If you wish to appeal our decision, you have 14 days, from the date of our initial response, to inform us, in writing [including email], tell us that you wish to appeal.

A Senior Manager, or Director will review your complaint and the response we initially provided. The Senior Manager or Director, will then provide you with a final response, which will include;

- Confirmation that we have finalised your complaint
- The outcome of the review of your complaint
- If it is upheld; how we are going to rectify the problem
- If it is not upheld; our reasons for coming to this conclusion
